

Easy read newsletter

Safer in Kent

Spring/Summer 2020

By Kent Police and Crime Commissioner, Matthew Scott

Matthew Scott hopes you are safe and keeping healthy

Thank you for staying at home to help doctors and nurses.

You are doing a great job even though it is hard

We are still working with charities and the police to keep you safe

We are helping police get safety gear

Masks, gloves and hand sanitiser

Sanitiser helps keep hands clean

Less crime in Kent in 2019

Good news! There was less crime in 2019 than 2018

Kent Police have worked hard to fight crime

Matthew now has more videos

A video is something you can watch.

Click here to watch some

Matthew was a goal keeper for a charity football game

We raised a lot of money for Sport Relief

What is a Police and Crime Commissioner?

Matthew Scott is Kent's Police and Crime Commissioner.

He asks people what they want the police to do best.

He writes a plan. The police have to do what is in the plan.

Matthew Scott is in charge of the money given to the police.

He gives money to services that help victims of crime

Contact us

contactyourpcc@kent.police.uk

01622 677055

@PCCKent

OPCC, Kent Police Headquarters,
Sutton Road, Maidstone, Kent, ME15 9BZ